

KEY INVESTOR INFORMATION

GBP I CLASS

This document provides you with key investor information about the Dominion Global Trends – Luxury Consumer Fund (“Luxury Consumer Fund”).

It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you to understand the nature and risks of investing in this Sub-Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Dominion Global Trends – Luxury Consumer Fund a sub-fund of Dominion Global Trends SICAV p.l.c.

Luxury Consumer GBP I Class – (ISIN: MT7000004073). This Sub-Fund is self-managed.

Luxury Consumer Fund was previously known as Dominion CHIC Fund and Dominion Global Trends – Consumer Fund. The Sub Fund changed name on 17th August 2012 and 9th June 2014 respectively.

Objectives and Investment Policy

The investment objective of Luxury Consumer Fund is to achieve medium to long term capital growth. The Luxury Consumer Fund aims to achieve this by investing in a diversified portfolio of securities issued by companies with recognised brands and in particular those companies that are directly or indirectly associated with the discretionary consumer goods and services sector.

Companies within the discretionary consumer goods and services sector include those that provide products that consumers buy with their discretionary income, such as mobile telephones, clothing, private education etc. Up to 80% of the portfolio will be invested in companies with a market value in excess of €1 billion. The remainder of the portfolio may be invested in companies with a market value of less than €1 billion or that are about to become listed on recognised stock markets. The maximum for those companies not yet listed is 10% of the portfolio.

Luxury Consumer Fund may also use financial derivative instruments (financial instruments where the value is linked to the expected future price movements of the underlying assets) to protect the value of the fund's assets. This is limited to a maximum of 10% of the total value of Luxury Consumer Fund at any time. The fund may also invest in other assets, such as cash (or near cash instruments) or debt securities.

The income in respect of shares in the Luxury Consumer Fund is not distributed but is retained.

You can buy and sell the shares on any business day in Malta.

Risk and Reward Profile

The above risk and reward indicator rates this Share Class as category 5 meaning that it offers a relatively higher risk of making a loss but also a relatively higher chance of making gains. It should be noted that even the lowest category on the indicator does not mean risk free.

Luxury Consumer Fund's rating on this indicator is based on historical data and therefore may not be a reliable indication of the risk profile of Luxury Consumer Fund in the future. Further, the rating shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.

Luxury Consumer Fund's rating reflects the nature of its investments and the corresponding risks to which it is exposed. These risk factors, which include the following risks, may affect the value of Luxury Consumer Fund's investments or expose it to losses:

Investment Risk

The price of the Shares and the income (if any) from them may go down as well as up reflecting the risk of investing in international markets and that investors may not receive back the amount that they originally invested.

Currency Risk

Any investments in international companies will mean that changes in currency exchange rates will have an impact on Luxury Consumer Fund.

Discretionary Consumer Sector Risk

The value of companies exposed to this sector may be affected by changes in consumer spending patterns around the world, increased political and social unrest and changes in government policies.

For more information regarding risks, please see the Section entitled "Risk Factors" in the Sub-Fund's Prospectus. The section entitled "Practical Information" below explains how you may obtain a free copy of the Prospectus and other useful information.
